

GOVERNOR ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER

February 21, 2006

California State Employees Association

I am pleased to offer you my congratulations as you celebrate your seventy-fifth year of operation.

This anniversary is a testament to your hard work and devotion to California's government workers. This is a significant milestone for your organization and I would like to recognize your group's exceptional longevity. I applaud your efforts to further the cause of California's employees.

Again, congratulations on this impressive achievement.

Sincerely,
